In 2015, this book is outdated. There are some great tips and it is jam packed with info, so I suggest people read it anyway and get out what they can. This was the book of the time in 2011 I believe. There is still some relevant stuff, but so much is out of play in 2015. Stuff just changes too quick online for this to still be relevant. Still if you have an extra weekend, give it a read and highlight what you can it can only help.
